

Date	Notes
January
Ribbon Skirt Day – Jan 4	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: National Ribbon Skirt Day is a day in Canada celebrating the ribbon skirt traditionally worn by Indigenous women. The day takes place annually on 4 January, and was first celebrated in 2023. Join North Grenville’s Indigenous Advisory Circle’s Ribbon Skirt Day event being celebrated on Saturday, January 11th Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; Indigenous identity, pride, and culture. • Recognizing Indigenous pride, culture, identity, and resilience through wearing ribbon skirts.
Lincoln Alexander Day – Jan 21	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Lincoln MacCauley Alexander, one of the most outstanding and accomplished Ontarians of our time, was born on January 21, 1922. He passed away on October 19, 2012 at the age of 90. His life was an example of service, determination and humility. Always fighting for equal rights for all races in our society, and doing so without malice, he changed attitudes and contributed greatly to the inclusiveness and tolerance of Canada today. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection/Celebration; honoring first Black MP in Canada, diversity and inclusion advocacy. • Honoring the contributions of Lincoln Alexander in promoting racial equality, diversity, and public service.
International Day of Commemoration in memory of the victims of the Holocaust – Jan 27	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: The International Day of Commemoration in Memory of the Victims of the Holocaust is a time to mourn those who disappeared and to reflect upon the choice of the individuals and governments that allowed this genocide to unfold. It is also a call for vigilance and for action, to address the root causes of hatred and prevent future atrocities from happening. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; honoring victims, awareness against hate and discrimination. • Remembering victims, emphasizing education, preventing intolerance, and promoting human rights.
February
International Day of Women and Girls in Science	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Every year on February 11 we celebrate International Day of Women and Girls in Science which was established in 2016 by the United Nations General Assembly to recognize the essential role women and girls play in science and technology. This day is an opportunity to promote full and equal access to, and participation in, science for women and girls. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting empowerment, visibility, and participation of women and girls in science fields.
March

Shrove Tuesday – March 4	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Shrove Tuesday is the day before Ash Wednesday, also known as Fat Tuesday and Pancake Day. Shrove Tuesday is the last day before the Lent season of fasting leading up to Easter. This religious holiday is observed in many Christian countries by participating in confession and absolution, the ritual burning of the previous year's Holy Week palms, finalizing one's Lenten sacrifice, and eating pancakes and other sweets. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; traditionally celebrated by eating pancakes before Lent. • Joyful community occasion marking the last day before Lent, often celebrated with traditional food and festivities. Suggested post language example: Join us for Shrove Tuesday! Enjoy pancakes and community spirit as we gather before Lent begins.
Ash Wednesday – March 5	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Ash Wednesday is a holy day of prayer and fasting in many Western Christian denominations. It is preceded by Shrove Tuesday and marks the first day of Lent, the six weeks of penitence before Easter. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; marking the beginning of Lent, a period of reflection • Solemn observance marking the beginning of Lent; encourages introspection and spiritual renewal. • Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, and Lent is 40 days long. It is the liturgical season leading up to Easter. • Lent "does not begin 40 days before Easter". The part that might be confusing is that the Sundays between Ash Wednesday and Easter are not included in the 40 days of Lent. When counting from Ash Wednesday to Easter, one will find that's more than 40 days. That's also why it's not 6 weeks long. Suggested post language example: Ash Wednesday marks the start of Lent, a solemn time for reflection and spiritual renewal.
International Women’s Day – March 8	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: International Women's Day is celebrated on the 8th of March every year around the world. It is a focal point in the movement for women's rights. IWD 2025 campaign theme is 'Accelerate Action', which emphasizes the importance of taking swift and decisive steps to achieve gender equality. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; promoting women's achievements and advocating for gender equality. • Recognition and empowerment of women, promoting equality and celebrating achievements.

Holi – March 14	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Hindu communities in Canada and around the world gather to celebrate Holi, also known as the Festival of Colours. This celebration marks the end of winter and the return of spring. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; vibrant Hindu festival symbolizing joy, spring, and renewal. • Vibrant Hindu festival symbolizing spring, renewal, joy, and overcoming adversity. Suggested language example: Wishing joy, renewal, and vibrant celebrations to everyone observing Holi today
St Patrick’s Day – March 17	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: St Patrick's Day remembers St Patrick, a missionary who converted many of Ireland's inhabitants to Christianity in the 5th century. His feast day also celebrates Irish culture. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; Irish cultural heritage recognized worldwide. • Honoring Irish heritage and culture with festivities and community gatherings.
March Equinox – March 20	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: The March equinox – aka the vernal equinox – marks the sun’s crossing above Earth’s equator, moving from south to north. Earth’s tilt on its axis is what causes this northward shift of the sun’s path across our sky at this time of year. Earth’s tilt is now bringing spring and summer to the Northern Hemisphere. At the same time, the March equinox marks the beginning of autumn – and a shift toward winter – in the Southern Hemisphere. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; marking seasonal change and balance of day/night. • Acknowledging seasonal change and renewal, symbolizing balance and new beginnings. Suggested language example: Today’s Equinox invites us to reflect on balance and embrace new beginnings as seasons change.
Naw Ruz – March 20	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Naw-Rúz is the first day of the Bahá’í calendar year and one of nine holy days for adherents of the Bahá’í Faith. It occurs on the vernal equinox, on or near March 21, which is the traditional Iranian New Year. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; Baha’i and Persian New Year marking renewal. • Marking the Persian New Year and celebrating renewal, peace,

	and community. Suggested language example: Happy Naw Ruz! Wishing renewal, joy, and peace to all celebrating the Persian and Baha'i New Year.
The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination – March 24	What's currently displayed in the calendar: The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination is observed annually on the day the police in Sharpeville, South Africa, opened fire and killed 69 people at a peaceful demonstration against apartheid "pass laws" in 1960. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; commitment to racial equality.
Earth Hour – March 11	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Earth Hour is a global event where people turn off their lights for one hour to show their support for the environment. The theme for 2025 is "Create the Biggest Hour for Earth". Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Day may change • Reflection; emphasizing environmental responsibility by switching off lights.
Eid al-Fitr – March 30	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Many Muslims in Canada celebrate Eid al-Fitr (also known as Id al-Fitr or Eid ul-Fitr) on the first day of Shawwal in the Islamic calendar. It marks the end of the month-long fast of Ramadan and the start of a feast that lasts up to three days in some countries. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; end of Ramadan, signifying community and charity. • Festive conclusion to Ramadan, emphasizing charity, community, and gratitude. Suggested post language example: Eid Mubarak! Wishing peace, joy, and blessings to everyone celebrating Eid al-Fitr today.
National Indigenous Languages Day – March 31	What's currently displayed in the calendar: National Indigenous Languages Day is an opportunity to honour the rich linguistic heritage of First Nations, Inuit and Métis across Canada. This day is a profound reminder of the importance of Indigenous languages and the critical role they play in preserving the history, culture and identity of Indigenous communities. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; celebrating Indigenous languages, awareness of revitalization efforts. • Honoring Indigenous cultures by highlighting the significance and revitalization of Indigenous languages.
April
Passover – April 12-20	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Passover, is a major

	Jewish holiday that occurs in the spring on the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Nisan. The holiday celebrates the deliverance of Jewish people from slavery in Egypt. Passover is also known as Pesah, Pesach, or the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; Jewish holiday commemorating liberation from slavery. • Important Jewish observance commemorating liberation, resilience, and freedom from oppression. Suggested post language example: Honouring Passover—a time of remembrance, resilience, and liberation. Wishing peace to all observing.
Palm Sunday – April 13	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Palm Sunday is the Christian feast that falls on the Sunday before Easter. The feast commemorates Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, an event mentioned in each of the four canonical Gospels. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration/Reflection; commemorating Jesus' entry to Jerusalem. • Christian observance marking the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, symbolizing hope and peace.
Good Friday – April 18	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Good Friday is the day when Christians commemorate the crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ. This is an important event in Christianity, as it represents the sacrifices and suffering in Jesus' life. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; remembrance of Jesus' crucifixion. • Solemn Christian observance commemorating sacrifice, compassion, and reflection on faith.
Easter Sunday – April 20	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Easter, also called Pascha or Resurrection Sunday, is a Christian festival and cultural holiday commemorating the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; resurrection of Jesus Christ. • Joyful celebration of resurrection, renewal, and new beginnings.
May
National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Woman and Girls – May 5	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: National Day for Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and (MMIWG2S), also known as Red Dress Day. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; awareness, remembrance, advocacy. • Day of advocacy, remembrance, and raising awareness to address violence faced by Indigenous women and girls.
International Day	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Since 2005, May 17th

Against Homophobia, Biphobia and Transphobia – May 17	has been dedicated to the International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia and Biphobia, marking the day in 1990 when the World Health Organization removed homosexuality from its list of mental disorders. IDAHO is celebrated in over 130 countries, uniting millions of people in support of the recognition of human rights for all, irrespective of sexual orientation or gender identity or expression. The International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia and Biphobia is not one centralised campaign; rather it is a moment that everyone can take advantage of to take action. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; promoting inclusivity and raising awareness. • Day for promoting understanding, equality, and challenging discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity.
June
National Indigenous Peoples Day/Summer Solstice – June 21	What's currently displayed in the calendar: National Indigenous Peoples Day in Canada is celebrated on June 21st, which also coincides with the Summer Solstice, making it a day of significant cultural importance for many Indigenous communities across the country; this day is used to recognize and celebrate the diverse heritage and contributions of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; honouring Indigenous culture, history, and contributions. • Honoring Indigenous heritage, cultures, traditions, and contributions across Canada; a day to highlight achievements and celebrate cultural pride, resilience, and diversity. • Solstice: Marking the longest day of the year; acknowledging renewal, the significance of the land, and Indigenous connection to nature.
Canadian Multiculturalism Day – June 27	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Canadian Multiculturalism Day honours the many cultural communities that help build a strong and vibrant Canadian society. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; diversity and inclusion in Canada.
July
Canada Day – July 1	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Canada Day, formerly known as Dominion Day, is the National Day of Canada. A federal statutory holiday, it celebrates the anniversary of Canadian Confederation which occurred on July 1, 1867. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; national pride, history, and unity. • Commemorating Canadian unity, heritage, and pride through national celebrations.
August
Emancipation Day –	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Recognized across

August 1	Canada, Emancipation Day marks the anniversary of the end of slavery in the British Empire in 1834. Emancipation Day celebrates the strength and perseverance of Black communities in Canada. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; recognizing abolition of slavery, ongoing anti-racism advocacy. • Acknowledging the history of slavery's abolition and reflecting on the continued fight against racism and inequality.
International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples	What's currently displayed in the calendar: The International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples was established by the United Nations in 1994 to raise awareness of the needs of Indigenous peoples. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection/Celebration; Indigenous rights, culture, contributions. • Global recognition and appreciation of Indigenous cultures, rights, and contributions.
September
Labour Day – September 1	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Labour Day is always celebrated on the first Monday of September, marking a day to recognize the achievements of workers and is traditionally associated with the labour union movement. The day is now part of a long weekend for many Canadians. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; achievements of workers, labour movement. • Honoring workers' rights, achievements, and contributions to society.
Ukrainian Heritage Day – September 7	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Ukrainian Heritage Day is celebrated on September 7th each year. It's a day to recognize the contributions of Ukrainian Canadians to Canada's culture, politics, education, and sports. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; recognizing contributions and culture of Ukrainian-Canadians. • Celebrating Ukrainian culture, traditions, and contributions to Canadian society.
International FASD Awareness Day (Red Shoe Day) – September 9	What's currently displayed in the calendar: International Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) Awareness Day is on September 9th. It's also known as Red Shoe Day because people wear red shoes to raise awareness of FASD. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; raising awareness and support for individuals and families affected. • Raising awareness, compassion, and support for individuals and families affected by Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder.
Rosh Hashanah – September 22-24	What's currently displayed in the calendar: Rosh Hashanah (literally, "Head of the Year") is the Jewish New Year, which marks the beginning of a 10-day period of prayer, self-examination and repentance.

	Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection/Celebration; Jewish New Year, renewal, spiritual reflection. • Marking the Jewish New Year with reflections on renewal, hope, and spiritual growth. Suggested post language example: Wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year filled with renewal, happiness, and meaningful reflections. Shana Tova!
Franco-Ontarian Day – September 25	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Franco-Ontarian Day is celebrated on September 25th to recognize the contributions of the Franco-Ontarian community to Ontario. The day also commemorates the first raising of the Franco-Ontarian flag in 1975. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; celebrating Francophone culture in Ontario. • Recognizing and celebrating Ontario’s French-speaking communities and their cultural contributions.
National Day for Truth and Reconciliation – September 30	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: The Government of Canada is committed to reconciliation and ensuring that the tragic history and ongoing legacy of residential schools is never forgotten. This national day honours survivors, their families and communities. It will also ensure that public commemoration of the tragic and painful history and legacy of residential schools remains a vital component of the reconciliation process. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; honoring residential school survivors, ongoing reconciliation. • A day for reflection, education, reconciliation, and honoring survivors and victims of residential schools. Suggested language example: Today, reflect on the legacy of residential schools and renew our commitment to reconciliation.
October
Yom Kippur – Judaism – October 1-2	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Yom Kippur is a Jewish holiday known as the Day of Atonement. Many Canadians of Jewish faith in Canada spend the day fasting and praying. Its theme centers on atonement and repentance. Yom Kippur is on the 10th day of the month of Tishrei (or Tishri) in the Jewish calendar. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; Judaism’s holiest day for atonement and reflection. • Sacred Jewish day dedicated to repentance, reflection, forgiveness, and spiritual renewal. Suggested language example: May this Yom Kippur bring peace, introspection, and renewal. Wishing all observing a meaningful fast and spiritual growth.

Feast of St Francis Assisi – Oct 4	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Many churches in Canada celebrate the Feast of St Francis of Assisi on October 4 each year. The feast commemorates the life of St Francis, who was born in the 12th century and is the Catholic Church’s patron saint of animals and the environment. It is a popular day for pets to be “blessed”. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; honoring nature, animals, and environmental stewardship. • Recognizing compassion, environmental stewardship, and harmony with nature and animals.
National Day of Action for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Two-Spirited People – Oct 4	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: The National Day of Action for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Two-Spirit People honours the lives of those who have been lost or are missing, and calls for an end to violence against Indigenous people. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; advocacy and remembrance. • Advocacy, awareness-raising, and remembrance of Indigenous women affected by violence.
International Day of the Girl – Oct 11	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Observed annually on 11 October, International Day of the Girl is a key global moment on which to celebrate girls everywhere, amplifying their voices, actions and leadership. It is a day that belongs to everyone who cares about girls and their rights. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; promoting girls' rights, empowerment. • Empowering girls globally, highlighting gender equality, education, and human rights.
Thanksgiving Day – Oct 13	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: This holiday may be celebrated by many with feasts and gratitude, but it is important to note the colonial roots of this holiday and the tension Indigenous peoples may feel with this day. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; gratitude and family gatherings. • Gratitude, community gatherings, family, and appreciation for harvest and abundance.
Diwali – Oct 20	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Diwali is a festival of lights and one of the major festivals celebrated by Hindus, Jains and Sikhs. In the lead-up to Diwali, celebrants may prepare by cleaning and decorating temples, as well as their homes and workplaces. Places are brightly illuminated with candles and oil lamps, and devotional offers (puja) are made. People also often wash themselves with water and fragrant oils, or wear adornments and new, fine clothes.

	The festival usually lasts five days and is celebrated during the Hindu lunisolar month Kartika. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; festival of lights symbolizing prosperity and new beginnings. • Hindu festival symbolizing prosperity, spiritual victory, hope, joy, and the triumph of good over evil. Suggested post language example: Warmest wishes for joy, prosperity, and the triumph of good over evil during this Festival of Lights. Happy Diwali!
November
Inuit Day – Nov 7	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Inuit Day, celebrated on November 7, is a day to honour the culture, history, and contributions of Inuit communities across Canada. The day highlights the rich traditions, languages, and heritage of the Inuit and their achievements. It also provides an opportunity to acknowledge the unique challenges faced by Inuit communities, such as those related to climate change, health disparities, cultural preservation, and social justice. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; recognizing Inuit culture and contributions. • Recognizing and celebrating Inuit cultural contributions, history, and traditions. Suggested language example: Honouring Inuit heritage today recognizing the strength, traditions, and invaluable contributions to Canada.
Indigenous Veterans Day – Nov 8	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: While exact statistics are difficult to determine, the rate of Indigenous participation in Canada's military efforts over the years has been impressive. These determined volunteers were often forced to overcome many challenges to serve in uniform, from learning a new language and adapting to cultural differences, to having to travel great distances from their remote communities just to enlist. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; honoring Indigenous veterans' sacrifices. • Honoring the contributions, bravery, and sacrifices of Indigenous veterans.
Remembrance Day – Nov 11	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Every year on November 11, Canadians pause in a moment of silence to honour and remember the men and women who have served, and continue to serve Canada during times of war, conflict and peace. We remember the more than 2,300,000 Canadians who have served throughout our nation’s history and the more than 118,000 who made the ultimate sacrifice.

	Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; honoring veterans and fallen soldiers. • Honoring and remembering those who served and sacrificed in military conflicts.
16 Days of Activism against Gender-based Violence – Nov 25 to Dec 4	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: The 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence begins on November 25, 2025, and ends on December 10, 2025. This annual campaign raises awareness and advocates for an end to violence against women and girls. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; advocacy and awareness around violence prevention. • Advocacy, education, and awareness for eliminating gender-based violence.
International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women – Nov 25	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Violence against women and girls (VAWG) is one of the most widespread, persistent and devastating human rights violations in our world today remains largely unreported due to the impunity, silence, stigma and shame surrounding it. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; awareness and advocacy for ending violence against women.
Advent – Nov 30 to Dec 24	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Advent is a season of the liturgical year observed in most Christian denominations as a time of expectant waiting and preparation for both the celebration of the Nativity of Christ at Christmas and the return of Christ at the Second Coming. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; spiritual preparation in Christianity. • Period of spiritual reflection, preparation, and anticipation leading to Christmas Suggested post language example: Advent reminds us of hope, peace, love, and joy. Wishing you a reflective and meaningful season.
December
National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence against Women – Dec 6	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: It has been over 30 years since the murder of 14 young women at Polytechnique Montréal (December 6, 1989) that saw the promising lives of 14 young women cut violently short. This senseless act of targeted violence shook our country and led Parliament to designate December 6 as The National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence against Women. On December 6, we remember Geneviève Bergeron, Hélène Colgan, Nathalie Croteau, Barbara Daigneault, Anne-Marie Edward, Maud Haviernick, Maryse Laganière, Maryse Leclair, Anne-Marie Lemay, Sonia Pelletier, Michèle Richard, Annie St-Arneault, Annie Turcotte, and Barbara Klucznik-Widajewicz. As we come together to commemorate this national tragedy, we also

	reflect on the troubling fact that for women, girls and LGBTQ2 individuals across our country violence continues to be a daily reality. Violence will have impacts on their physical, sexual and reproductive health. They may experience anxiety and a reduced ability to participate in social and economic activities, leaving gaps in our workplaces and in our communities as a result of violence. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; remembrance of victims and advocacy for safety. • Remembering victims of violence, advocating for gender equality, and promoting action against violence.
International Human Rights Day – Dec 10	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10 December — the day the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR): a milestone document proclaiming the inalienable rights which everyone is inherently entitled to as a human being regardless of race, colour, religion, sex, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Available in more than 500 languages, it is the most translated document in the world. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflection; human rights advocacy globally.
Hanukkah – Dec 14 to 24	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: Hanukkah, also known as the Festival of Lights, is an eight-day Jewish observance to remember the Jewish people's struggle for religious freedom. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; Jewish festival celebrating resilience and miracles. • Jewish festival celebrating perseverance, freedom, and the miracle of light. Suggested language example: Happy Hanukkah! Celebrating eight nights of joy, resilience, and the miracle of lasting light. Chag Sameach!
Winter Solstice – Dec 21	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: The first day of winter in the Northern Hemisphere is marked by the winter solstice, which occurs on Sunday, December 21, 2025, at 10:03 A.M. (EST). Although the winter solstice means the start of winter, it also means the return of more sunlight. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Day may change • Reflection; seasonal change, renewal. • Reflecting on the cycle of nature, renewal, and the longest night turning to returning light.
Christmas Day – Dec 25	What’s currently displayed in the calendar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Celebration; cultural and religious traditions celebrating peace, joy, family.

- Celebration of peace, joy, giving, family, and cultural traditions.